Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 16. to Saturday October 20. 1733.

Dublin, October 8.

ON Thurſday laſt, the 4th Inſtant, the Parliament having met according to the Prorogation, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the Hours of Peers, and being ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Ceremony, his Grace ſent for the Commons, and directed them to chuſe a Speaker. Upon which the Honourable Henry Boyle, Eſq; was choſen Speaker, Nem. Con. And the next Day his Grace the Lord Lieutenant went again in State to the Houſe of Peers, and being ſeated on the Throne with the like Ceremony, his Grace ſent for the Commons, and approved of their Choice of a Speaker, and made a Speech to both Houſes, who unanimouſly reſolved upon humble and dutiful Addreſſes to his Majeſty; which were this Day preſented to his Grace.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with the greateſt Satisfaction I return to meet a Parliament, ready on all Occaſions to give freſh Proofs of their Zeal and Affection to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and have the Commands of a moſt gracious Sovereign to give you the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of his tender Regard and Concern for your Happineſs; and to recommend to you the Conſideration of whatever may beſt contribute to the Welfare of this his Kingdom.

In ſo happy a Situation, I maywith Reaſon expect, that all your Proceedings will be carried on with Temper and Unanimity; and that this Seſſion will end to the Advantage of the Nation, and to the mutual Satisfaction of his Majeſty, and all his faithful Subjects.

The Linnen Manufacture is ſo beneficial to this Kingdom, and ſo capable of being further extended, that it ſhould be your conſtant Endeavour to improve and enlarge that moſt valuable Branch of Trade, which well deſerves, and will amply reward, all the Care and Attention you can poſſibly beſtow upon it.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have directed the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates, in order to be laid before you; and I have nothing from his Majeſty to ask, but ſuch neceſſary Supplies, as may ſupport the Eſtabliſhment, and provide for the National Debt, in ſuch manner as may be moſt expedient, and leaſt burthenſome to his Subjects.

As a frugal Management of the Revenue hath been the principal Object of my Adminiſtration; ſo it will be my greateſt Pleaſure, if thoſe publick Services can be effectually provided for, with Honour to his Majeſty, and with Security and Eaſe to his People, without raiſing new Taxes, or increaſing the National Debt. And this I perſuade myſelf can only be effected, by finding out ſome Means to prevent the great Diminution of the Revenue, by the fraudulent Importation of Goods.

I muſt therefore recommend to you, the preparing ſuch Heads of a Bill, as may be moſt likely to attain that deſirable End.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Treaty of Marriage concluded between the Princeſs Royal and the Prince of Orange, muſt be agreeable to all his Majeſty's good Subjects, and particularly to thoſe of this Kingdom. The great Share they had in the ineſtimable Advantages procured to us by the ever-glorious King William III. cannot fail of making them participate largely of the Joy, which is ſo univerſal upon this happy Occaſion.

As the eminent Vertues and Accompliſhments of her Royal Highneſs could not but make an Alliance with her earneſtly ſought for; ſo his Majeſty, ſolicitous for the future, as well as preſent Good of his People, could not give a more endearing Proof of his Reſolution to perpetuate their Happineſs, than by yielding to the Inſtances of that Houſe, which hath ſo glorioufly diſtinguiſhed itſelf in the Cauſe of Liberty, and the Proteſtant Religion.

You are now in Poſſeſſion of thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, under the mild Government of a moſt gracious King, who eſteems it his chief Glory to protect us in the full Enjoyment of all our Civil and Religious Rights.

An inviolable Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Family, and a firm Union amongſt all Proteſtants, who have one common Intereſt, and the ſame common Enemy, will be the ſureſt Means (under God) of ſecuring theſe Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and humble Thanks for the tender Regard and Concern your Majeſty hath always ſhewn for the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom, and for continuing us under the wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall apply our utmoſt Care and Attention to find out proper Methods for improving and enlarging the Linnen Manufacture, the principal Branch of our Trade; which cannot but flouriſh under your Majeſty's Royal Favour and Encouragement.

Your Majeſty's faithful Subjects of this Kingdom have the utmoſt Joy and Satisfaction from the Treaty of Marriage concluded between the Princeſs Royal and the Prince of Orange, and acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs in giving a Princeſs of ſuch eminent Virtues, and diſtinguiſhed Accompliſhments, to a Prince of the Houſe of our late great Deliverer King William of Glorious Memory; by whoſe victorious Arms the Proteſtants of Ireland were reſtored to their Religion, Liberties, and Eſtates; and to whoſe wiſe Councils they owe the happy Proſpect of having theſe invaluable Bleſſings continued to their lateſt Poſterity, under your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall on all Occaſions manifeſt ſuch Duty, Zeal and Loyalty to your Majeſty, and ſhew ſuch Temper and Unanimity in all our Proceedings, as becomes Subjects truly ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under a moſt gracious Sovereign, who eſteems the Good of his People his greateſt Glory, and hath ever made uſe of his Royal Power to protect his Subjects in the full Enjoyment of their Civil and Religious Rights.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer,

My Lords,

I will tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, in order to it's being laid before his Majeſty, by the firſt Opportunity.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Joy and Gratitude for the Aſſurances given us, that our Affection and Zeal for your Perſon and Government are known and acceptable to your Majeſty.

That our Conduct may anſwer what is juſtly expected, we ſhall, with a full Senſe of your Royal Favour, calmly conſider and deliberate upon whatever may beſt conduce to your Majeſty's Service, and the Welfare of our Country.

We are truly ſenſible, that the Linnen and Hempen Manufactures of this Kingdom, are the moſt valuable Branches of our Trade; to the Improvement of which we ſhall apply our utmoſt Care and Attention, and are convinced by Experience how far they already have, and may be yet farther extended, by the Encouragement they receive from Great Britain, under the Continuance of your Majeſty's Royal Influence and Protection.

We will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to find proper Means for preventing the fraudulent Importation of Goods, a Practice equally pernicious to your Majeſty's Revenue, and the Trade of this Kingdom.

We have the moſt grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt auſpicious Reign, and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, grant ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary for ſupporting your Government with Honour, and providing for the National Debt, in ſuch Manner as may be moſt expedient, and leaſt burthenſome to your People.

As

As we admire your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in giving the Princeſs Royal in Marriage to a Prince related to our great Deliverer; ſo we have a large Share in the univerſal Joy which this diffuſes over all your Dominions; Your moſt diſtant Subjects are not Strangers to the Virtues and Accompliſhments of her Royal Highneſs; in her the Divine Providence ſeems to recompenſe the Houſe of Orange for their conſtant Oppoſition to Popery and Arbitrary Power, and to inſpire the Heart of our Sovereign in beſtowing the Reward; at the ſame Time it is natural for a Princeſs educated by your Royal Conſort, to prefer an Alliance with that glorious Family, to the Splendor of the higheſt Titles.

We feel the pleaſing Influences of your Majeſty's mild and moſt gracious Government; we experience that you commit Power to a Governour who has ever your Royal Example in View, and is always vigilant to preſerve the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, together with the Eaſe and Welfare of the Subject.

With a Loyalty ſuitable to the Protection we receive; with an Ardour becoming the Cauſe of Religion and Liberty, we will oppoſe the common Enemy, and do all that in us lies to promote the Peace and Proſperity of your Majeſty's happy Reign, which we beſeech the Almighty long to continue, and in your illuſtrious Line to derive and perpetuate the Bleſſings we enjoy to our lateſt Poſterity.

Bruen Worthington, } Cl. Parl.
Iſaac Ambroſe, } Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will take the firſt Opportunity to tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, to be laid before His Majeſty.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg leave to return our moſt ſincere Thanks to your Grace, for your excellent Speech from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Among the many repeated Inſtances of his Majeſty's tender Regard and Concern for our Welfare, we ſhall ever eſteem it a moſt convincing one, that his Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to continue the Government in the Hands of a Perſon, from whoſe known Honour, Integrity and great Abilities, we may promiſe ourſelves the Continuance of that Happineſs which we have hitherto enjoyed under your Grace's wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration.

We are truly ſenſible that the Linnen Manufacture deſerves our utmoſt Care and Attention, and thankfully acknowledge your Grace's Concern for our Intereſts, in recommending to us the Improvement of a Branch of Trade, ſo neceſſary to the Support of this Kingdom.

As his Majeſty has on all Occaſions taken the moſt juſt and prudent Meaſures to preſerve the Proteſtant Religion, and the Liberties of Europe, ſo his great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in yielding to the Inſtances of the Prince of Orange, and giving him a Princeſs ſo eminent for her Virtues and Accompliſhments, educated under the Care, and influenced by the great Example of the Queen her Royal Mother, ſhew that his Majeſty extends theſe his moſt Noble and Generous Views to Poſterity.

The Proteſtants of Ireland, who have ſuffered more than any others of his Majeſty's Subjects from Popery and Arbitrary Power, and who have the greateſt Senſe of the Bleſſings they derive from the late happy Revolution, have a large Share in the univerſal Joy occaſioned by ſo near an Alliance between his Majeſty and a Prince of the Houſe of their ever Glorious Deliverer King William.

With grateful Hearts, we ſee theſe moſt invaluable Bleſſings ſecured to us under his Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign. Give us Leave therefore humbly to aſſure your Grace, that it ſhall be our conſtant Care, as it is our indiſpenſible Duty, to deſerve them. We ſhall on all Occaſions ſhew an inviolable Attachment to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Family, to the Proteſtant Religon, and the true Intereſt of our Country; and by our Temper and Unanimity in all our Proceedings, endeavour to make this Seſſion end to the Advantage of the Nation, the Satisfaction of his Majeſty, and his faithful Subjects, and to the Honour of your Grace's Adminiſtration.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I am very much obliged to your Lordſhips for this kind Addreſs; and ſhall always value your Teſtimony of my Zeal for his Majeſty's jesty's Service, and of my Care to promote the Good of the Kingdom, as one of the greatest Honours.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, return our humble Thanks for your Grace's excellent Speech from the Throne, and sincerely rejoyce at your Grace's happy Return, and wish'd-for Continuance in this Government.

We are very well assured, that the frugal Management of the publick Treasure, which the Circumstances and Condition of this Country require, has been the principal Object of your Grace's Administration; and whatever Ease the Publick has received, we are confident, has been the Effect of your Grace's just Representation of the true State of this Kingdom to his Majesty.

We look upon your earnest Recommendation of the Improvement of the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures, to be a fresh Instance of your Grace's Goodness and Regard for this Country; and as we shall not be wanting to ourselves in so material a Branch of our Trade, so we confidently rely on all due Encouragement under your Grace's Administration.

We cannot neglect this Opportunity to express our just Sense of your Grace's Encouragement of Learning, which with all its Accomplishments, hath long been one of the great Distinctions of your Grace's Family; your Grace, by a very endearing Approbation of our University, hath shewn us, that we may there place our Youth with Safety, directed by your Grace's Example, and encouraged by your Success.

We are under the strongest Ties of Gratitude, to proceed with Chearfulness and Unanimity in providing for the necessary Supplies of so mild and prudent a Government, which we assure ourselves will be to the mutual Satisfaction of your Grace, and those we represent; and we have no doubt, but our Readiness to discharge our Duty to our King and Country, will induce your Grace to represent to his Majesty our unshaken Loyalty, and and inviolable Attachment to his Person, and to the Protestant Succession in his illustrious House.

Bruen Worthington, } Cl. Parl.
Isaac Ambrose, } Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Thank you for this very obliging Address, and as I am persuaded of your firm Attachment to his Majesty's Person and Government, I shall with pleasure continue to represent it, in such a Manner, as may be most for the Service of the Kingdom, which I shall on all Occasions zealously endeavour to promote.

Dublin, October 11.

Yesterday the Regiment of Horse commanded by Colonel Ligonier, and the three Regiments of Foot, commanded by Colonel Cope, the Earl of Effingham, and Colonel Hamilton, were reviewed in His Majesty's Park the Phœnix, near this City, by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, attended by the General Officers; her Grace the Dutchess of Dorset, and a great Number of Persons of Quality and Distinction of both Sexes, being present. The Regiments made a very handsome Appearance, and were very perfect in their Exercise and Firings. His Grace returned on Horseback from the Park to the Castle, attended by the General Officers and others, where there was a most magnificent Entertainment; at which were present all the General and Field Officers then in Dublin; with many other Persons of Distinction.

Dublin, October 12.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of their Majesties Coronation, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garrison which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green. At Noon there was a very numerous Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment his Grace the Lord Lieutenant upon that Occasion: After which his Grace, attended with the Guard of Battle-Axes, and a Squadron of Horse, made a Tour round St. Stephen's Green. In the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy. A Play was given by his Grace for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and after the Play, a Ball and a magnificent Collation at the Castle.
